The Pathway to Heaven

“Enter by the narrow gate” (Matthew 7:13).

The way that went to the left was narrow, leading into the light of heaven. Along that road were young angel children and lovely trees and flower gardens (see HH 534; AC 3477).

The Pathway to Hell

“Wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction” (Matthew 7:13).

The way that went to the right was broad and spacious leading obliquely downwards toward hell. Along the broad road were various types of snakes and serpents (see HH 534; AC 3477).
