

Quotes from the Word: Worship of the Heart

OLD TESTAMENT

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. (Psalm 29:2)

Then I will go up to the altar of God,
To God my exceeding joy;
And on the harp I will praise You,
O God, my God. (Psalm 43:3,4)

O come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before the Lord our Maker. (Psalm 95:6)

You shall not make idols for yourselves; neither a carved image nor a sacred pillar shall you rear up for yourselves; nor shall you set up an engraved stone in your land, to bow down to it; for I am the Lord your God. (Leviticus 26:1)

The Lord is near to all who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth. (Psalm 145:18)

Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the gold image which I have set up? ...If you do not worship, you shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you from my hands?"

Shadrach Meshach, and Abed-Nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. If that is the case, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king...."

Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego.... And he commanded certain mighty men of valor who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, and cast them into the burning fiery furnace.... Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished; and he rose in haste and spoke, saying to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered and said to the king, "True, O king." "Look!" he answered, "I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire; and they are not hurt, and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God...."

Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego came from the midst of the fire.... Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, who sent His Angel and delivered His servants who have trusted in Him...that they should not serve nor worship any god except their own God!" (Daniel 3:14-17, 19-20, 24-26, 28)

"I dwell in the high and holy place, with him who has a contrite and humble spirit."
(Isaiah 57:15)

He does not forget the cry of the humble. (Psalm 9:12)

The Lord lifts up the humble. (Psalm 147:6)

HEAVENLY DOCTRINE

WORSHIP OF THE HEART

By the worship of God people at the present day mean primarily worship of the lips in church, and also morning and evening. Worship of God does not however consist essentially in that, but in a life of performing useful services. This worship is in keeping with the order of heaven. Worship of the lips is also worship, but it achieves nothing whatever without worship in the life one leads, since this is worship of the heart (Arcana Coelestia 7884).

True worship of God is unknown to those who think that all worship consists in acts of adoration and prayer, thus in such things as belong to the mouth and thought, and not in such as belong to deeds flowing from the good of charity and the good of faith. Yet the reality is that in a person offering adoration and prayer the Lord pays attention solely to his heart, that is, to what he is like inwardly so far as love and consequently faith are concerned (Arcana Coelestia 10143:4).

Worship in the external person proceeding from charity in the internal, appears to the angels as a standard bearer with a banner in his hand. But worship in the external person that does not proceed from charity in the internal, appears to the angels as an actor with a firebrand in his hand (Charity 177).

FREEDOM OF WORSHIP

What is sown in freedom remains, because it is implanted deeply in the person's actual will, which is the indispensable element of his life. But what is sown under compulsion does not remain, because the compulsion is not an impulse originating in the person's own will but belongs to the one who compels him. So it is that worship offered in freedom is pleasing to the Lord, but not worship offered under compulsion. Worship offered in freedom is worship coming from the heart; for all freedom goes together with love (Arcana Coelestia 9588).

While a person is being regenerated, he exercises self-compulsion, from the freedom with which he is gifted by the Lord (see Arcana Coelestia 1947:1, 2).

WORSHIP AS A WAY OF LIFE

Worship does not consist in prayers and in external devotion, but in a life of charity. The essential of worship is the life of charity (see Apocalypse Explained 325:3).

Truth becomes a matter of life and worship when the person has an affection for it, wills it, and does it. Worship springing from truth that goes out from the will, and so from affection and love, is worship. In the Word this is called worship of the heart, but the other, worship of the lips alone (Arcana Coelestia 9393).

Worship of the Lord does not consist in mere belief nor in mere love. Rather it consists in leading a life in accord with His commandments (Arcana Coelestia 10645:2).

True worship consists in the performance of useful services, thus in the exercise of charity. Anyone who thinks that serving the Lord consists solely in going to church regularly, listening to the preaching there, and saying his prayers is much mistaken. True worship of the Lord consists in performing useful services to his country, its communities, and his neighbor with all his heart. They also lie in honest dealings with fellow human beings and in the diligent discharge of duties with full regard for each person's character. These useful deeds are the principal ways of exercising charity and the principal means of worshipping the Lord. Going to church regularly, listening to sermons, and saying one's prayers are also necessary; but without the useful deeds they have no value at all, for they do not constitute a person's life but teach what that life ought to be like. Useful services are the determining factor in the happiness imparted by the Lord in heaven, and that those services are the chief way in which the Lord is worshipped (see Arcana Coelestia 7038:1,3).

A person is worshipping all the time if love and charity abide in him (Arcana Coelestia 1618).

Practical piety is to act in every work and in every duty from sincerity and right, and from justice and equity, and this because it is commanded by the Lord in the Word. Piety is to think and speak piously; to spend much time in prayer; to bear oneself humbly at such times; to attend churches and listen devoutly to preaching there; to partake of the sacrament of the Holy

Quotes from the Word: Worship of the Heart

Supper frequently every year, and likewise the other services of worship. But the life of charity consists in willing and doing good to the neighbor; and in acting from a principle of what is just and fair, and good and true, in every work and every office. In a word, the life of charity consists in performing uses. Divine worship consists primarily in the life of charity, and secondarily in piety. He who leads a life of piety, and not at the same time a life of charity, does not worship God. It is true, he thinks of God, yet he does not think from God, but from himself (see New Jerusalem and the Heavenly Doctrine 124 and Apocalypse Explained 325:4).

Worship of the mouth is accepted by the Lord according to the worship of the life (Brief Exposition 51).

The reason why the worship of the mouth is accepted by the Lord according to the worship of the life, is because the speech of a person before God, and before angels, has its sound from the affection of his love and faith, and these two are in person according to his life. If the love of God and faith in Him are in your life, the sound of your voice will be like that of a dove. But if self-love and self-confidence are in your life, the sound of your voice will be like that of an owl, howsoever you may bend your voice to imitate the voice of a turtle-dove (Brief Exposition 52).

YOU SHALL HAVE NO OTHER GODS

All who acknowledge and worship any other God than the Lord the Savior, Jesus Christ, who is Jehovah God Himself in human form, sin against the first commandment. Those also sin against it who persuade themselves of the actual existence of three Divine persons from eternity.... Who would not see the monstrosity of that faith if it were presented as it is in itself in a picture before his eyes? For example, if the three were to stand in order beside each other, the first distinguished by a scepter and crown; the second holding a book, which is the Word, in his right hand, and in his left a golden cross spattered with blood; the third, encircled with wings, standing upon one foot, ready to fly forth and do his work, and above the three the inscription—these three persons, being so many Gods, are one God. What wise man seeing the picture would not say to himself, "Alas, what hallucination!" But he would say otherwise if he were to see a picture of one Divine Person with rays of heavenly light about His Head and with the inscription over it, "This is our God, at once Creator, Redeemer, and Regenerator, and therefore the Savior." Would not that wise man kiss this picture, carry it home in his bosom, and by the sight of it gladden his own mind, and the minds of his wife and his children and servants? (True Christian Religion 296).

"You shall not have other gods before My face" means that there must be no thought about truths from any source other than the Lord (Arcana Coelestia 8867).

The first commandment of the Decalogue, "You shall not worship other gods besides Me," involves in the spiritual moral sense that nothing else nor anyone else is to be worshipped as Divine.... In the celestial spiritual sense it involves that one God only is to be acknowledged, and not several [gods] according to their qualities or according to their works. This commandment in the Divine celestial sense involves that the Lord alone is to be acknowledged and worshiped, and a trinity in Him, namely, the Divine Itself from eternity, which is meant by the Father, the Divine Human born in time, which is meant by the Son of God, and the Divine that proceeds from both, which is meant by the Holy Spirit. These are the three senses of the first commandment in their order (see Apocalypse Explained 1025:2,3).

[Need to check original quote for more context...]"Thou shalt not make to thee other gods" includes not loving self and the world above all things. For that which one loves above all things is his god (Apocalypse Explained 950:3).

HUMILITY

Divine worship consists in exalting the Lord in contrast to self, which one does according to one's degree of self-abasement before the Lord. Self-abasement is the essential element in Divine worship. When that element is present in a person he is in the right state to receive from the Lord the truth of faith and the good of charity, and is consequently in the right state to offer Him worship. But if a person exalts himself before the Lord he shuts the interiors of his mind off from receiving goodness and truth from the Lord (Arcana Coelestia 8271).

The Lord desires any person's total submission so that He can make him blissful and happy.... The need for total submission is perfectly clear from the Church's first commandment, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength. This is the first commandment" (Mark 12:30). Thus since love to the Lord does not come from a person but from the Lord Himself, all his heart, all his soul, all his mind, and all his strength, which are recipients, must be the Lord's. They must therefore be submitted totally to Him (Apocalypse Explained 6138:2,3).

[A]ll true worship consists in adoration of the Lord. Adoration of the Lord consists in being humble; and being humble consists in the self-acknowledgement that with oneself there is nothing living and nothing good.... Being humble also consists in the acknowledgement that everything living and everything good come from the Lord. The more a person acknowledges these things not just with the lips but in his heart, the more humility he has; and consequently the more adoration - which is true worship - and the more love and charity, and the more happiness. The first contains the second, and they are so linked together as to be inseparable (Arcana Coelestia 1153:2)
